

Discover Goulburn's Living History

during this great event period

Friday 8th March 2019 to

Monday 11th March 2019 inclusive.

ENJOY your time in Goulburn as there are many attractions awaiting you.

During the Living History Festival of 2019

You can visit the annual Rose Festival and the Art Show, historic icons such as the Historic Waterworks, the Old Brewery, Garroorigang Historic Home and "Riversdale" National Trust Homestead, with their exhibitions and tours.

Join the guided tours organized by the Goulburn District Historical and Genealogical Society, including a tour of the Historic former St Joseph Orphanage, a bushwalk to the Convict Road Constructions and the Great South Road at Towrang

Our Library is hosting speakers, Phillip Leighton-Daly who will speak on the Towrang Stockade and surrounds, and Jennifer Lamb and Jennie Gordon who will speak on the impact of colonization on the Gandangara and Ngunnawal Nations of the Goulburn District.

The Mulwaree High School Remembrance Museum will be open.

Details of all events are available from the contacts shown for each venue.

For the visitors to our City, Goulburn offers great accommodation, and for visitors and our local residents, dining is offered at quality Restaurants, Service Clubs, Cafes and casual coffee shops, as well as the family friendly beautiful Belmore Park in the centre of town where a picnic or take away meal can be enjoyed.

For the motoring enthusiasts the memorials for the First Australian Motorcycle Tourist Trophy held in 1914, the First Motorcycle Grand Prix held in 1924 and the First Australian Grand Prix for all powers racing cars held in 1927, are worth a visit. Wakefield Park Raceway is only 10 kms out of town.
